

Fulbright U.S. Student Program

WHAT: Grants for Study, Research, or Teaching Assistantships Abroad (1000 awarded annually)

FOR WHOM: Rising seniors, recent alumni, and master's and doctoral candidates

WHERE: Nearly 100 countries worldwide, from Albania to Zimbabwe

WHEN: Campus application deadline in September; 9 month grants usually start the next fall

HOW: Application includes 2 short essays, recommendation letters, and a brief interview

WHY: The Fulbright Student Program is not a study abroad program but a highly prestigious national competition for recent B.S./B.A. graduates that awards about 25% of all applicants. Going on a Fulbright expands your intellectual and personal development, allows you to gain invaluable international experience, and opens the door for further professional opportunities upon your return to the United States.
